

Administrative Procedures

Administrative Responsibility of the Building Principal

Building principals and Crouse Education Center administrators will perform their responsibilities in a professional manner.

Building principals will be present in their buildings during the same hours that the teaching staff is expected to be in attendance. Also, building principals will be available to meet with students, parents, District Education Center personnel, and the Board of Education, as necessary.

Adopted: 12/13/00